Another great Vendor Review!

Review for Reuben Kee with the sale of our house
"Reuben is very knowledgeable and professional in the residential real estate market. We found him to be a person of integrity and provide high level of quality service throughout the sale of our house. From the start of house preparation, reno touch-up, concept, marketing, open house, to eventual customers follow-through. He is attentive to details and commands high level of standard for the house he sells. Great marketing campaign and video presentations attracted very high views and inquiry despite it was launched at the height of COVID-19 in Sydney.

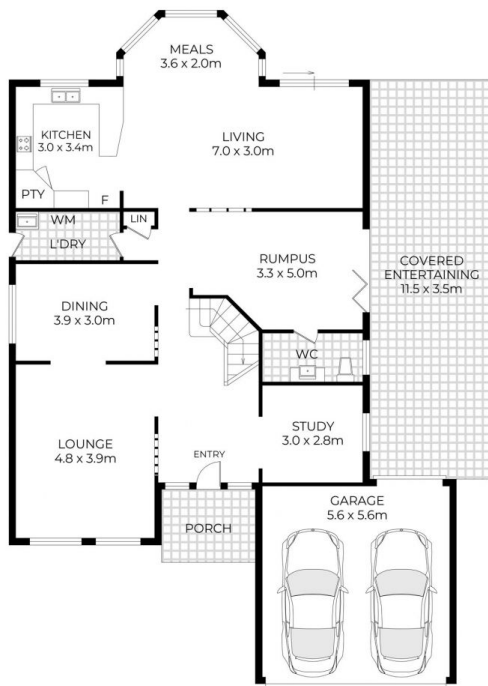

Reuben is a person we can entrust with for the sale of our house and we would highly recommend him to our friends who wish to put their house to the market."
